Water Plant Tests New Equipment

Around the Square

If you are confused by the fact that some people are asking whether or not Sierra Madre should have a float in next year's Tournament of Roses parade while, at the same time, others are going ahead with plans for same, then you aren't the only one. The best explanation for this apparent paradox is that Alfred Dewey, the artist for the project, and Charles E. Louk, chairman of the Float Committee, have to be prepared at least up to a certain point if Sierra Madreams decide to chip in with enough money to pay for it.

Maybe a lot of people will wag their heads, saying how tough it is to raise money this time of year, along with all the other money-raising projects, with Christmas coming, and taxes, and so forth. But! You want to make a bet? We'll wager that the citizens of this community won't let Sierra Madre pass up its tradition of entering a float in the Tournament of Roses parade.

On the subject of Christmas, it sure is a convenience to have the local stores open every Friday evening until 9 o'clock. It gives the merchants quite a long day, but it makes it possible for other working men and women to do their shopping without having to wait for the Saturday afternoon crush. Wonder how many of the evening shoppers will be made up of housewives who could have shopped during the day?

Couple of gals we know rather well have had similar experiences in the past week that would prove that the age of

City School Improved By New Lighting

There will be better lighting in the entire upper corridor of City School as the result of the last meeting, Nov. 18, of Sierra Madre's school board. Completion of the lighting improvements, which has been so much desired by parents and school personnel, will be brought about by the installation of 15 Silvray fixtures and lamps. Other items on the agenda, in part, were as follows:

Communication from Aaron Glaser regarding lease of space in City School by Foothill Jewish Community Center. This was agreed upon, with the lease pertaining to one hour on Sunday mornings, for a Sunday school.

The 1952-53 fee for County

Open House Celebrates New St. Rita School Building

More than 300 parents and children attended the open house at St. Rita's School Nov. 20 in joint celebration of the completion of the new school building and American Education Week.

Preceding an address by Father O'Malley, students of the 6th, 7th and 8th grades presented a program of dramatic skits and choral numbers.

The program consisted of "America," "God Bless America" and "One World" sung by the Glee Club of the 7th and 8th grades; introduction by Michael Glingrich; a sketch of Columbus by Grade Six. Richard Paulus told of America's Heritage and Grade Eight put on a colorful skit, "Democracy in Our Schools," representing in Lawrence Washburn, chairman of the Water Committee, announced at City Council meeting last Tuesday evening that Sierra Madre has arranged with the Los Angeles county flood control district to run a lease of 200 acre feet of water to test the city's newly completed spillways. The test of the new equipment, which was installed at a cost of $10,800, will last 15 days, beginning Dec. 1.

Also on the agenda was the approval of the county agreement on recreation, whereby the county of Los Angeles will contribute to local recreation funds along with the City of Sierra Madre and City School.

The council also discussed the city's civil defense system. Mayor Henry F. Korsmeier expressed the council's gratitude for the work done by Col. C. R. Gildart and his staff, and described the defense practice last Sunday as being a great success.

Civil defense volunteers, it was learned at the meeting, are needed to fill jobs in police and fire auxiliaries. Clerical and stenographic help are also necessary.

If you like the beautiful, "brand new" weather we've been having lately, then help keep it that way by signing the anti-smog petitions around town. You can find them in local stores, City Hall, or The News office.

Sierra Madre About to Lose Old Landmark

Sierra Madre is about to lose a famous landmark, the former 68-year-old Sierra Madre Hotel at 225 N. Lima street. Still referred to as "the old hotel," it is now the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Buie, who are making plans to raze the dwelling. Hearings for their request to re-zone the property will be held before the Sierra Madre Planning Commission Dec. 18 and Jan. 22.

In days past, the hotel was one of the most popular tourist attractions in the San Gabriel Valley. Many celebrities have signed the register there to stay overnight, in preparation for a trip up the old trail to Mt. Wilson.

In recent times, when it became an "antique," it was used as location for a motion picture depicting the years when horses were a more popular form of transportation than automobiles.

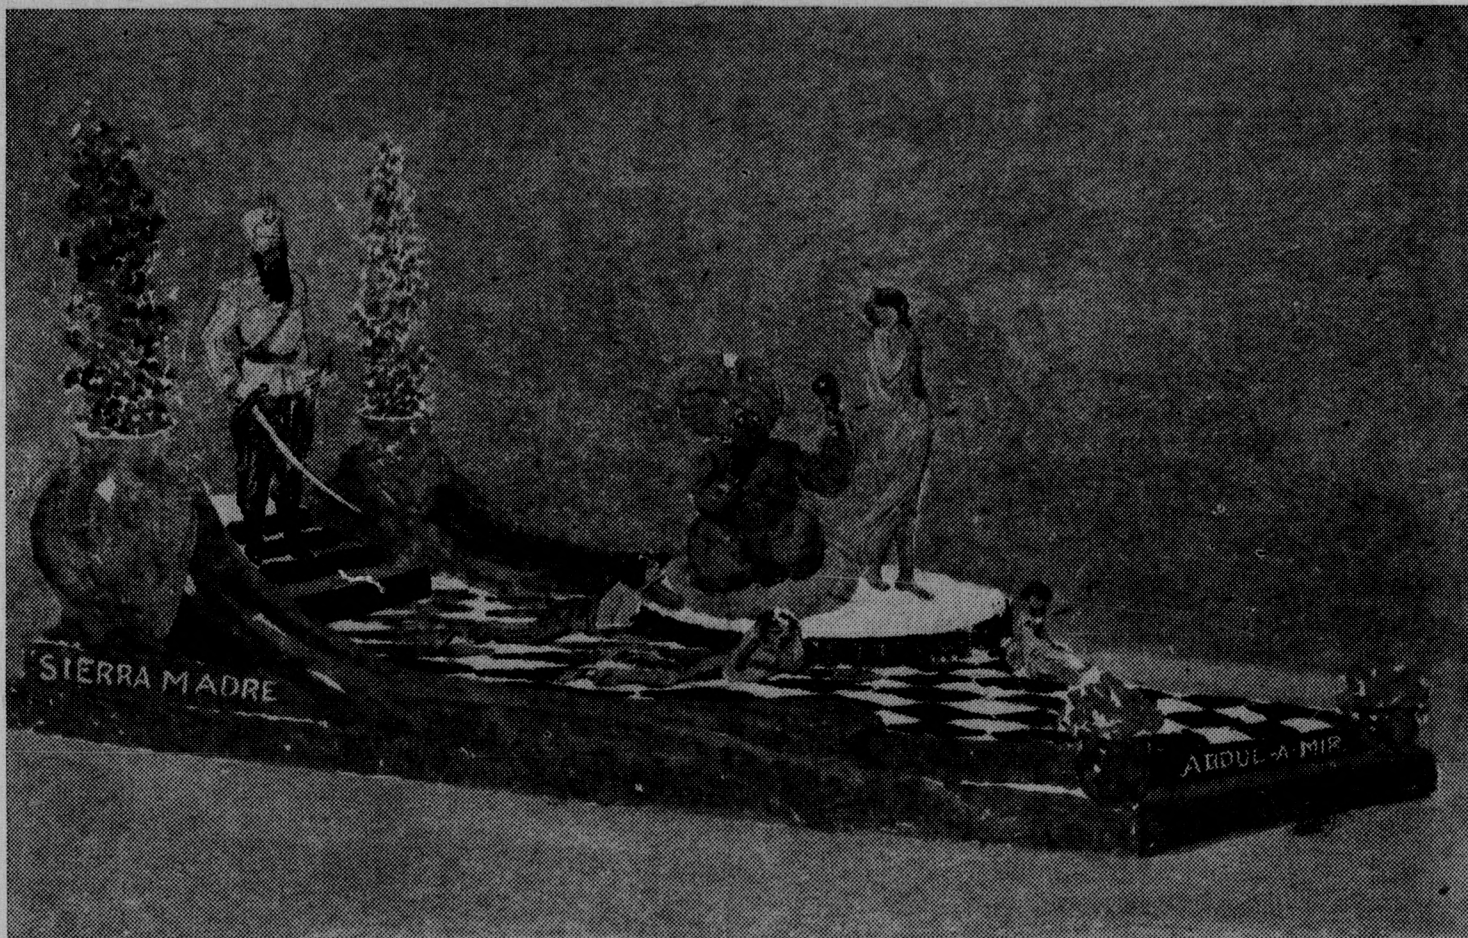

Mrs. Buie, who often is asked by people for a look through the beautiful building, has said she hates to see the old place disappear, but points out that with its very high ceilings, no furnace, and other factors its age, it seems no longer possible to let it stand.

costume the different nationalities that have made American history.

The building addition to St. Rita's School provides four new classrooms for the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades, a library, a principal's office, a health room and toilet facilities. A breezeway connects the new building to the present school containing four classrooms which house the lower grades. The building is of brick construction and modern design. The architect was Armet and Davis of Los Angeles, and Theissen and Company of Pasadena was the contractor.

In addition, the Rectory has been remodeled, also the original classrooms renovated, with acoustical ceilings, louvered windows and asphalt tile flooring to conform with the new classrooms.

The complete building and renovation program spanned a period of six months and cost $65,000, according to Father O'Malley. With the new classrooms, the school can now handle an ultimate enrollment of between 350 and 400 pupils. The current enrollment is 250, 50 students more than last year.

IF ENOUGH FUNDS are raised to pay for a Sierra Madre entry in the 1953 Tournament of Roses Parade, the float will be in keeping with the parade's theme of music. The song it will represent is "Abdul Abul-bul A-mir," who will be portrayed by the Sierra Madream who most closely resembles the central figure painted in this picture by Alfred Dewey. The character standing behind him is "Ivan Skavinsky Skavar," a figure that calls for an unusually tall man. Whoever the six girls may be, not too incidentally, depends on residents here who cast their votes for whomever they please. Votes are bought ten for one dollar, with the money going toward the cost of the float.

New Phone Numbers Start Next Midnight

A good many Sierra Madreams will have new telephone numbers, effective midnight Nov. 29. Those that will be changed are all Custer numbers beginning with CU 5-4, CU 5-5, CU 5-6, and CU 5-8.

The California Water and Telephone Company advises that after Nov. 29 all residents should consult their new directories to see if numbers they frequently call have been changed.

Subscribers have been informed in advance what their new numbers will be. Anyone trying to reach an old number will be interrupted on the line by a recording that will inform the caller of the change, locally.

In the case of persons making telephone calls to Sierra Madre from out of town, the operator will break in to give the right number.

Chart Board Shows Disaster Strikes City

Planning Group Meets to Consider Zone Changes Here

In its Nov. 20th meeting, the Sierra Madre Planning Commission continued its hearing on the matter of changing the R-1 zone to R-1L in the north section of Sierra Madre. According to latest proposals more land would be included in the re-zoning. The matter was referred to City Council for further action.

On the subject of C-1 modified, the commission held that it wants to apply the new zone when created to Sierra Madre boulevard, between Lima and Michillinda, or portions of that area. It also concurred with City Council that uses of R-3 zone, under sections 3, 4 and Sierra Madre spent a disastrous 12 hours last Sunday on the chart boards of local Civil Defense services in City Hall when enemy planes were reported bombing the city and vicinity, blowing up power and water plants, and parachuting attack troops into the midst of a harassed citizenry.

Residents, who previously had been indifferent to plans for preparedness, were reported among the first to call for help in the attack, which was simulated by Civil Defense associate director Col. C. R. Gildart in his messages to his co-workers who had given up their Sunday leisure to engage in a regional practice of Civil Defense performances. His staff was composed of men and women learning the means by which Sierra Madre might be defended, whether the emergency were to be created by war, fire, flood, or earthquake.

Whatever the cause might be, the results in theory were treated as emergency conditions without category. As Gildart, and other officers in Civil Defense—Jim Heasley of fire division, Dr. M. H. A. Peterson of medical staff, Col. Charles E. Morrison of the Red Cross Disaster committee, and Dean Stoddard, chief warden—have pointed out, a widespread fire, flood or earthquake might require immediate defense treatment for the safety of all residents the same as might be needed in treating the results of war.

It also has been shown by Gildart, whose efforts toward an emergency defense of Sierra

Group Meets to Form Swim Pool Association

THERE WILL BE A NEW SWIMMING POOL FOR SIERRA MADRE if these people in the picture are successful in their efforts toward that end. Meeting for a business luncheon last Friday, they took the first step necessary to form a non-profit corporation to be known as "The Sierra Madre Swimming Pool Association." Seated around the table are, left to right: Ralph "Pappy" Welch, Mrs. Florence Peterson, Al Masters, R. Merritt Baker, Judge John C. Mead, Dick Hawks, Tom Schwartz, R. C. Lewis and Dave Allen. Lewis was elected president by the group.

R. C. Lewis Is President of Organization

Action by a group of Sierra Madreams has begun the forming of a non-profit corporation with a board of directors consisting of nine members, plus the mayor of the City of Sierra Madre as honorary chairman, for the purpose of receiving and disbursing funds and to generally further the project of building a swimming pool in the Sierra Madre city park.

The group, meeting at a luncheon last Friday, was composed of the following: Judge John C. Mead, Mrs. S. E. Peterson, Al Masters, Ralph "Pappy" Welch, Richard A. Hawks, Tom Schwartz, R. C. Lewis, Merritt Baker and David H. Allen. Temporary Chairman Welch appointed Allen as temporary secretary.

Among those named, Schwartz, Allen, Hawks, Welch, Peterson, Mead and Lewis were elected as members of the board of directors, along with a time as the organization is incorporated and their successors elected. It was decided that the name of the organization should be "The Sierra Madre Swimming Pool Association."

The meeting included a general discussion of the facilities in City Park. It was later voted that the organization favor the location of the proposed swimming pool at the southwest section of City Park to obviate the necessity of immediately acquiring the private property at the north. At the same time, the members endorsed the proposed acquisition of that private property by the City of Sierra Madre in order that other proposed improvements may be made in City Park.

President Lewis declared the officers and directors to be duly elected and to serve until such

Parade Entry Is The Big Question

H. White Will Attend Coordinating Council

Howell N. White, Jr., president of the Sierra Madre school board, will attend the meeting of the Coordinating Council next Tuesday evening at City School to describe local school situations. He also will tell the part that can be played by the Educational Research Committee in these problems.

He will invite any who are willing to work with the committee to attend the next school board meeting the evening of Dec. 9.

To Float Or Not to Float

"To float or not to float?"—that is the question up to Sierra Madreams to answer before work can be started on Sierra Madre's entry in the Tournament of Roses parade next New Year's Day. They will answer it by making donations to the Sierra Madre Float Committee, care of The Bank of Sierra Madre, or not making them.

In the meantime, there comes another question: "Who in Sierra Madre should be 'Abdul Abul-bul A-mir'?" Whoever he is, he would be the chief figure on the float, along with "Ivan Skavinsky Skavar."

Or wait a minute! There also would be six beautiful girls, 16 years of age or older. So that makes a third question: "Who really would be the chief figure?"

Considering this, there are some worldly souls who believe that the float could best be described as containing six chief figures. They would mention "Abdul" and "Ivan" as "just a couple of guys, tagging along for the ride, who might get a little attention, too."

Although nobody seems to know whether the money can be raised for the float, Artist Alfred Dewey, who has designed so many prize-winning Sierra Madre entries in the past, has gone ahead in making a painted sketch to meet the requirements of Pasadena's 1953 New Year "song title" parade by selecting the song, "Abdul Abul-bul A-mir" as a possible Sierra Madre theme.

Unless the money is raised, according to Charles E. Louk, chairman of the Float Committee, there will be no float. No float—no "Abdul," no "Ivan," and no six beautiful girls.

So a fourth and final question arises: "Will the people of Sierra Madre ignore tradition by failing to provide an entry this year in the Tournament of Roses?"

Louk hopes that Sierra Madreams will object to such an idea, by sending their contributions—early!

Plane Crash Victim Found In Mountains

The body of Robert C. Hall, 25-year-old light plane pilot who had been missing since last Friday, was removed from the rough terrain near here on the east slope of Mt. Harvard, above Chantry Flats, by sheriff deputies and forest service officials last Tuesday.

Hall, an oil engineer, had been enroute from Taft to El Monte, planning to attend last Saturday's USC versus UCLA game. When he failed to arrive, his father, Charles C. Hall of Montebello, reported to authorities who began the search. Sgt. John Uzelac, flying a Sheriff's Area Squadron plane, sighted the wreckage Tuesday morning. It is believed Hall may have been trapped in fog before he crashed.

Rose Bowl Tickets Available To $50 Float Contributors

Any resident of Sierra Madre who contributes fifty dollars or more toward building a float for the Tournament of Roses parade next New Year's Day will be given the opportunity to purchase four tickets to the Rose Bowl annual football classic, according to an announcement at the last meeting of the Float Committee, Nov. 19.

The meeting was attended by Chairman Charles E. Louk, Mayor Henry F. Korsmeier, City Superintendent R. Merritt Baker, City School Superintendent Charles Skutt, Alfred Dewey, artist, Murray Hawkins, councilman, and Al Freeland, water department superintendent. Major item on the agenda was the creating of the following committees for organizing the construction of the float:

Flower supply, J. C. Hansen, chairman; construction, William Schlitz; supplies, Merritt Baker; decorating, George Norris; costumes, Mrs. Alfred Dewey; scaffolding, Vint Hoegee; Tom Schwartz and Veri Rhine; finance, R. C. Lewis, Lloyd Welch, Francis Eakman,

JOHN J. LUVISI DIES OF HEART ATTACK IN CAR

The many friends and acquaintances of John Joseph Luvisi, who had been a resident here for 14 years, were shocked and saddened by his untimely death last Friday when he was stricken by a heart attack while driving his car.

Luvisi, 53, who had been suffering from a cold described by his doctor as bad enough to be on the verge of pneumonia, reportedly had left the offices of Dr. George Groth, Sr., enroute to his home at 734 Skyland drive, before his car struck a tree near Briar Hill Lodge, 405 Churchill road at 9:15 a.m. Clem Pearce, manager of the lodge, investigated and asked his wife to call the police.

Dr. Groth and an ambulance from Monrovia were summoned. Police investigation, showing little damage to Luvisi's car, and medical examinations gave evidence that Luvisi had been stricken before his car left the road. A bottle of pills found on Luvisi's person apparently had not been used.

Luvisi was a veteran of World War I and a member of St. Rita's Church, the Holy Name Society and the Third Order of St. Francis. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Luvisi.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

At The Temple
33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.
Thomas C. Pollgreen, Master

SOMEWHERE IN THIS GROUP of Princesses is the future Queen of the 1953 Tournament of Roses. Students at John Muir College and Pasadena City College, they are from left, rear: Eleanor Marie Johnson, Diane K. Armstrong, Jacqueline Ann Hoerger, Judy Lynn Roberts; front, Sandra Gilman, Leah Feland and Nancy Smith. It is probable that the majority of local interest settles upon Diane Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Armstrong, 57 Lowell. When she became a princess it was no surprise to Sierra Madreans who have known her as a former Wistaria queen, movie starlet, and magazine cover girl. She attends John Muir College. Selection of the queen will be according to the votes of judges on a committee composed of business and professional people. The date for this announcement so far has not been set, but the publicity committee of the Tournament of Roses says that it will be made at least by Dec. 11. Or does that seem too long to wait—especially if you're holding your breath?

ANNOUNCEMENT

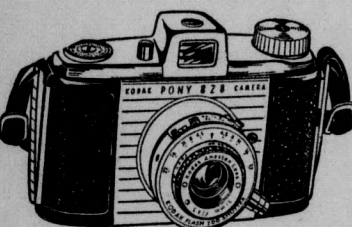

The new owners of the Wistaria Bake Shop, Mr. and Mrs. David Sample, cordially invite all Sierra Madreans to stop in and get acquainted. We feature the fine quality baked goods that this shop has been noted for in the past, and the same friendly, courteous services as always.

A number of our neighbors along the "Party Line" are working very hard on the plans for the Christmas Fair, given by the Trinity Presbyterian Church, next Wednesday, Dec. 3. The "gates" will be open at 1 p.m. and aside from all the pretty things for sale, there will be a tea party, games and movies for the children, and a dinner. It's a chance in a million for our young mothers because there will be a nursery, at the Fair, that will look after the small fry while mama "cuts a rug."

Al Pruitt, on Cartwright, has been having quite an extended business trip. He first flew to San Francisco and from there, went to New York. His good wife, Robbie, has been "keeping the home fires burning" in his absence. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Minnie B. Graves, is well on her way to becoming a chrysanthemum authority. She won two blue ribbons at the recent flower show with blossoms that she had raised.

Mrs. F. E. Voegelin, of Long Island, N. Y., has been having a nice visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Pete and Dotie Voegelin, and her grandson, Rickie. She will not be returning home 'til after the Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

We know the friends and neighbors of Ethelyn and Herbert Miller will be sorry to hear that they have sold their Cartwright home and are moving to Corona Del Mar right after the first of the month.

Ann and Don Strasser of Davenport street, have started their family with a daughter, Beverly Ann. Miss Strasser was born last November 11, at St. Luke Hospital, and weighed in at 7 pounds, 4 ounces.

Arlynn and Paul Kaponya, and their two children, Paul and Joan, have just returned to their Medford road home, after enjoying a two week visit in the east. They drove to Milwaukee to visit Arlynn's family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scultz, and Paul's family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kaponya, Sr. To make the trip complete, they flew to New York City for a few days of "fun and frolic."

Yesterday, Thanksgiving, seemed to be a gay time for everyone along the "Party Line." Sybil and Herb Gale took son Richard over to celebrate the day with Sybil's family, the Ben Ashes in Beverlywood.

Carolyn and Frank Williams joined in a family reunion at the Harry Williams home in Pasadena. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dunning have just recently returned from Europe. Movies they had taken provided wonderful entertainment for Mr. and Mrs. Jack McClaskey, Mr. and Mrs. McClaskey, Jr. and the younger members of the party, Diana and Sharon Williams, and Kathie McClaskey.

Leon and Fred Malig had turkey and all the trimmings for a get-together at their Michellinda home. Their young daughter, Melissa, and their German shepherd, King, enjoyed themselves every bit as much as the "older set."

THEY LOSE TONSILS AND HEARTS, TOO

According to fiction, the usual hospital romance is between a nurse and her gentleman patient but two of our local residents decided to be different.

Susie, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Storton of 390 W. Highland, and Jackie, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Gates of 3860 Canfield road, lower Hastings Ranch, shared the same room at the Huntington Memorial Hospital when they had their recent tonsillectomies. Rumor has it that not only did they lose their tonsils, but their "hearts" too. In any event, romance has not seemed to deter them because both children are making a very speedy recovery.

Annual Dance For Nursery School Dec. 6

The Community Nursery School Christmas Dance, one of the gayest events on the Association's "just for fun" calendar, will celebrate its sixth year Dec. 6. Members, who may bring as many guests as they wish, have already been sent their tickets.

The dance is to be held at the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre boulevard, where the hall will be transformed into a Yuletide setting. Many people in the past have dressed formally for the occasion, but formal dress is not required.

Entertainment will include the music of Bud Yamell and his orchestra, with refreshments served throughout the evening.

VIRGINIA GESS IS GUEST

Mr. and Mrs. William Wilcox, 312 E. Grandview, have been entertaining with a series of gala events for their house guest, Mrs. Virginia Gess of Philadelphia.

Fashion Show Proceeds Aid Building Fund

The recent gift of $550 made by the Nursery School Auxiliary, from the proceeds of their October Fashion Show, to the Community Nursery School, brings the school Building Fund within a few hundred dollars of its $4000 goal.

With this latest contribution, the Auxiliary will have furnished over 28% of the total funds for the new addition to the Nursery School Building.

When the new addition is completed, about Dec. 1, it will house the youngest age group in the school, and provide a combined office and parent's room. Each of the three age groups will then have its own room.

'Salute to Courage' At Woman's Club

The members of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club enjoyed the showing of the new color movie, "Salute to Courage," at their tea meeting last Wednesday.

This film, which stars Peggy Dow and Joe E. Brown, takes the audience on a tour of the vast Goodwill Industries plant, showing them handicapped people at work and picturing the training and rehabilitation services rendered to the handicapped by non-profit Goodwill Industries.

Clifford Woolsey, from the Public Relations Department of Goodwill Industries, spoke to the members briefly following the film.

CIVIC CLUB WILL DONATE COOKIES

Sierra Madre's Civic Club has volunteered to supply the local Red Cross chapter with 1500 cookies for the party at the Long Beach Veterans Hospital, Thursday, Dec. 4. The party is a weekly affair, for which the Sierra Madre chapter of Red Cross supplies the cookies about three times a year.

A Variety of New Books at Local Library

Reviewed by Isabel Stradley

QUEEN'S GIFT, by Inglis Fletcher. This novel captures as only Inglis Fletcher can, the excitement, challenge, suspense and consequence of the memorable contest over the ratifying of the Constitution. The author of the brilliant Carolina Series—"Raleigh's Eden," "Lusty Wind for Carolina," "Roanoke Hunted," has reached an engrossing climax with this latest book. All the splendor and drama that Mr. Fletcher uses, are woven here with the skill of great story-telling. This historical novel is a thoughtful one, massive in concept, a distinguished book.

POSTMARKED MOSCOW, by Lydia Kirk. This graphic tale of how foreigners and Russians live in Moscow by the wife of the ambassador to the U.S.S.R., 1949-1952, is also strong in human interest. While there are many amusing anecdotes, Mrs. Kirk gives us a picture of the Soviets more tellingly than pages of discourse by the experts in ideology. This is a fascinating book packed full of interesting information.

TALLULAH, by Tallulah herself. This is a book which casts its leading lady in her most entertaining and spectacular role—herself. Illustrated with 24 pages of photographs, it will excite and delight a host of readers. Wise, penetrating, provocative and frank, Tallulah's autobiography will be quoted and re-quoted.

THE GOWN OF GLORY, by Agnes Sligh Turnbull. Here is a big romantic novel! A real heart-tugger, a book full of tears, laughter, young love, the secrets of a minister's heart, strength and wisdom. The author of "The Bishop's Mantle" has written in this, her latest book, a tale of gravity and grace.

Other new books at the library are:

Non-fiction: Judge Medina, Daniel; Karen, Killilea; Polks at Home, Halsey; Tallulah, Bankhead; Life and Good Times of William Randolph Hearst, Tebbel; Journey to the Far Pacific, Dewey; Defense of Western Europe, Middleton; One Man's America, Cooke; Story of the Oceans, Douglas; Spirit of Liberty, Hand; Fill'er Up, Partridge; Meetinghouse Hill, Winslow; Submarine, Beach; Beauty Behind Barbed Wire, Eaton; Mystery of Marie La Farge, Saunders; Barefoot in Athens (drama), Anderson; I Am a Camera (drama), Van Druten.

Fiction: Tender Age, Thatcher; The Spire, Brace; Bread from Heaven, Buckmaster; Houses in Between, Spring; Confessors of the Name, Schmitt; Old Man and the Sea, Hemingway; A Hungry Man Dreams, Runbeck; Thudbury, Davis; Witch Water, Miller; Happy Returns, Thirkell; Best American Short Stories 1952, Foley; Long Loud Silence (science fiction), Tucker; Beachheads in Space (science fiction), Derleth; Mystery Tales by Millar, Carr, Erskine, Davis, Lanham.

ROBERT PETERSON WINS SOLO AWARD

Robert Peterson, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. H. Peterson of 417 E. Montecito, was a first prize winner in the seventh Annual Amateur Hour of Pacific Union College, Angwin, Calif., Saturday evening, Nov. 15.

Mr. Peterson won the yearly talent award for his trombone solo. He is a freshman, pre-medical student at Seventh-day Adventist College.

Tumbling Class In New School Sports Program

Last week approximately 30 boys, from the 4th, 5th and 6th grades of City School, began a tumbling class as the first development in a new recreation program announced by Sierra Madre's recreation director, Philip Mitchell. Bud Carew, assisting physical director at the Pasadena YMCA, who taught judo during the last war in many GI camps throughout the USA, is the instructor.

This step is in keeping with Mitchell's statement at the last meeting of the Recreation Commission that four tumbling mats have been purchased for the new program. In years past, such mats used in athletic instruction had to be borrowed from Pasadena schools. Delivery of the mats, however, can not be expected until mid-December. In the meantime, students are using mattresses covered by a rug material.

Also in line with the new program will be the installation of horizontal bars on the upper athletic field of City School today.

Summer plans for enlarged recreation are already under way. Three contractors are submitting bids, to be heard at the next school board meeting, for the lighting equipment to be used on the basketball courts of the school and, later, on the upper field for night softball games.

COORDINATING COUNCIL WILL MEET TUESDAY

Five reports on current civic activities and important new business are scheduled for the next Coordinating Council meeting, Tuesday, Dec. 2, at 8 p.m. in the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School.

The agenda, set up at last Monday night's board meeting, includes reports on the swimming pool by Ralph "Pappy" Welch, "Jobs for Juniors" by Mrs. Ralph Twedell, education and family service, and the status of the city's proposed library.

at best...

Tuberculosis is still extremely serious, but not necessarily fatal—thanks to early diagnosis, hospital treatment, surgical advances, and new drugs.

Yet the problems created by TB are still enormous for the patient who recovers—vocational, social, emotional, and economic problems. For example, recovery almost always means a prolonged absence from both job and family.

Since 1907 your Christmas Seal dollars have helped fight tuberculosis on all fronts, from research to rehabilitation. That great emphasis is now on rehabilitation is both proof of wonderful progress in lives saved... and need of your continued help. Send your contribution today, please.

How Much Does Car Cost In Operation?

BERKELEY.—An average citizen, driving a relatively new car, pays about 8 cents per mile for travel expenses, a University of California study reveals.

If you own an expensive car you pay in excess of 10 cents per mile. One way to cut down on car expenses is to own a "jalopy," do your own repair work, and have no garage rent to pay. This way travel expenses amount to only 2 to 3 cents per mile.

This information, compiled by Dr. Ralph A. Moyer, professor of civil engineering on the Berkeley campus, was disclosed in a report by the University's Institute of Traffic and Transportation Engineering.

Dr. Moyer pointed out that at a present cost of about 8 cents per mile the average citizen, whether he realize it or not, is putting himself somewhat in the luxury class.

"But he still seems willing to pay the premium for the freedom and flexibility this kind of transportation gives him," the engineer added.

At that the car owner of today is better off than in 1903 when the cost of operating a relatively new car of ordinary class ranged from 10 to 20 cents per mile.

The Institute's report noted that the United States now has a car for almost every family, or about one passenger car per 3.8 persons.

Commenting on trends of cars over the past 30 years the report showed that cars have become heavier, larger, faster, and more expensive. It added that the idea of a low-initial-cost new car has apparently now found widespread favor with the American public.

FIRE FLAMES

As the celebrative holiday mood grows nearer, we've three words to youngsters and their parents: caution with inflammables.

Along that line, we want to extend some belated thanks regarding Halloween. Belated, but not outdated; in that, fire talk and thanks are alike.

Sierra Madre experienced the most quiet and least destructive Halloween of its history, or at least as far back as this scribe can remember. (That's a long time ago.) How can we account for it? We may all have our ideas and perhaps we are all correct. However, if we can only continue to grow stronger in eliminating foolish habits and customs, we may some day be rid of the very dangerous Fourth of July fireworks in the hands of children and amateurs who endanger an entire area with their hazard. To the children who were so thoughtful as to not try any dangerous lighting of matches to dry materials, we are very grateful. And to those young men who have at last come to a realization of the danger of firing palm trees, we are more than unusually thankful. Fun is fun, but when it comes to fire there is too much danger there to be considered fun. Thanks to the parents for their good work.

To those who have trash or rubbish that should be removed, please get in touch with the fire department for advice. This has nothing to do with that material that should be hauled away. We are interested in that which remains in a location as to create hazard. If there is no other practical way of removing there may be a possibility of removal by burning. Please advise us here at the station before attempting to burn in the open.

At this time of year, we have strong winds. During a powerful gale is certainly no time to have an open fire, even a simmering one. Make certain that an open fire is completely out before leaving it. Wind will develop a simmering fire into a blazing one and from there, well, who knows?

THE GIRL SCOUTS OF SIERRA MADRE are helping the city to join the national campaign against tuberculosis by putting Christmas Seal posters around the town. Those who posed for local Christmas Seal publicity are Lynn Mack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mack of 90 Rancho road, and Betsy Burghardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Burghardt, 326 N. Mountain Trail. They are presenting their posters to Virginia Sayles in her downtown store. Although the young Scouts are members of Troop 13, under the leadership of Mrs. Roy Arnold, they wanted everyone to know that all Girl Scout troops in Sierra Madre are working in the campaign.

SCHOOL BOARD

to us both. We share the responsibility for Sierra Madre children of Junior High age.

"As a fellow board, we are well aware of the problems created by the expanding pressures of the schools. Four years ago we had 466 elementary pupils in sixteen classrooms. Today we have 600 in twenty classrooms. In five years we expect 810 pupils and are planning for a total of twenty-seven classrooms to accommodate them.

"It was with some concern, therefore, that we learned from Mr. Walkup, Dr. Marsee and Dr. Gilchrist that there is tentatively no provision in the forthcoming bond election for expansion of the Junior High facilities serving the Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch and East Pasadena areas. It is difficult for us to understand how school buildings constructed for the needs of twenty years ago, when vineyards and orange groves comprised areas now subdivided into fifty-foot lots, can be considered adequate for tomorrow's needs.

"The statistics on 'Utilization' in the School Survey are apparently open to more than one interpretation. Our understanding of pupil station utilization leads us to believe that the combined facilities of Wilson and Marshall are approaching 100% of capacity at the present time—and the great wave of children born in 1942 and the years following has not yet reached Junior High.

"We realize that we do not have the complete picture. We have heard that your plans may include a conversion to a 6-3-3-2 plan which would increase the capacity at the Junior High level. It is possible that our needs will be satisfied by other plans of which we are not aware. Perhaps an informal round table discussion of the problem as your plans begin to crystallize would eliminate any cause of apprehension.

"We believe that it is essential that we be made aware and be kept informed of matters that affect us so closely. We know that you have our interests at heart, and we wish to offer you our full support, but in order to work with you effectively, we need a clear understanding of your plans."

Thought Waves

... with William Fischer Hair Fashions

It's strictly Fabulous! Incredible, too! And amazing! But it's True!

On Christmas Eve, one of you local ladies will be gifted—and we do mean gifted—with a permanent wave that costs ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS ... in American money, not pesos!

Can you visualize a One Hundred Dollar permanent wave? Can you imagine anyone buying one? Well, for women to whom money is easy-come, easy-go ... for women whose hair may be their fortune or simply their one Great Extravagance, the Fabulous Permanent is practically a necessity ... not the luxury it may seem to most of us earthbound mortals. But ... within the past year, eighteen Fabulous $100.00 Permanents have been sold in Hollywood alone. Five in San Diego. Three in Santa Barbara. Eight in San Francisco. And the wave is definitely sweeping the country. Last we heard, one salon in New York had given sixteen ... at one hundred dollars each!

But this isn't a pitch to sell you one of these $100.00 waves. The whole idea is that we're going to give one away, this very Christmas Eve.

And one of you matrons or maidens will be parading the town in a permanent that movie and TV stars and women of wealth might acquire. (Of course, if you have a whole hundred and want to spend it all on yourself, we'll be glad to sell you a Fabulous ... any time. It's a most beautiful and most glamorous wave!)

Meanwhile, for details on the Fabulous Wave we're giving away—for free—phone our Salon ... Custer 5-1366 ... and we'll tell you how you may be the Chosen One to flaunt the world's most Fabulous (and, needless to say, the world's most beautiful) permanent wave.

We're at 147 West Sierra Madre Boulevard, you know (or should) in that interesting-looking pink and green 'dobe' where Marshall's Nursery used to be.

Come in and see us. And, may we suggest that the appointment books are filling fast for Christmas and New Year's. We suggest immediate booking with trophy-winning William Fischer and Donna. The phone ... Custer 5-1366.

See Nancy for your manicures. She will show you how to keep your nails beautiful, give them life and make them grow.

Scanning the Sport Scene

By BOB BROGGER

With another successful football season behind them, the John Marshall Tigers started Monday with their first basketball practice. As usual Coach Pat Geyer is going to rely partly on the Sierra Madre talent. Two years ago we had a newcomer to Sierra Madre, of whom we all should be proud. His name is Henry Aguilar of 40 N. Lima. Although he came to Marshall after the first quarter, he became quickly popular and took part in the school activities. The following year, Marshall students found he liked sports, when he went out to perform great feats for the football team, the basketball team, track and swimming. Henry, with a tremendous football season chucked under his arm, is on his way to a repeat performance.

The population of Sierra Madre dropped a count of five last Saturday. Yes, the Ballenger's have moved to Santa Barbara. Mr. Wilbur Ballenger was offered the job of being chief, and having the experience in the Navy, naturally grabbed it. Mr. Ballenger, Mrs. Ballenger, Lorraine, who will be six in December, moved on to Santa Barbara. Leland, the oldest of the children, is in the Army. Larry, who is closing on 16, was left behind for a month, because he wanted to stay until the football season was over. He easily earned his letter, and was about the best lineman the Marshall Bee team had.

Larry started his day at 7 in the morning, playing his trumpet. He played in the Marshall band for three years, and had the reputation of being a very good tooter. Catching the school bus at 8, he would end the school day at 3:30, and hurry out for football practice. He wouldn't get home until 6 p.m.

Larry loved sports and always could tell you the history of the New York Yankees. We hope Larry has the same success in Santa Barbara as he had in Sierra Madre. We also want to wish the best of luck to the rest of the family.

We won't say a final goodbye, because we hope to see them again in the near future for at least a short visit.

AROUND THE SQUARE

chivalry is not dead. Within a few days of each other, Pat Wilcox and Sally Clark both had flat tires on Sierra Madre boulevard. In the Hastings Ranch area where no filling stations are nearby. While Pat was fumbling with a tire jack, a young man in shiny new Lincoln stopped in front of her and took over the task. In Sally's case, she had no sooner parked her limping car when a cheery individual in an Adohr milk truck stopped alongside. When she protested that he would be late on his route, he promised he could change the tire within ten minutes. Which he did.

Neither women learned the names of their rescuers, but both reported that their experiences renewed their faith in mankind.

Every city in the United States is within reach of enemy bombers. Prepare with Civil Defense.

LADY LIONS ADD 5 NEW MEMBERS

Due to the illness of Mrs. Harold Pangborn, the Lady Lions had their meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Robert Buttane.

Five new members were taken into the group and each was given a momento from the club.

After the refreshments, Mr. Robert Buttane showed a film of the Lions Club trip to Catalina last summer.

GROTHS RETURN HOME

Dr. and Mrs. George W. Groth, Jr., returned last Sunday from a carefree holiday in San Francisco. The Groths made the trip by plane and had ample time for some fun and relaxation in the northern city. The Plaza Hotel was their home away from home while they were in the Bay area.

Library Service was quoted at the minimum amount of $1100.

From Dr. C. C. Trillingham came a report that the "per-pupil-cost" at City School amounted to $205.21. According to Mrs. Stanley Coutant of the school board, this is reasonably low figure.

A communication was received from T. W. Neale, Sierra Madre insurance man, reporting an increase of fire insurance necessary to keep school property up to present day insurable value.

Applications of two additional substitute teachers were accepted from Mrs. Corrine Jacobsen of Altadena and Mrs. Catherine Schwartz of Pasadena.

REDWOOD FIRE FIGHTING

In 1933 a careless hunter started a forest fire in Oregon that cost the stockholders of our company several millions of dollars. The loss in potential wages to our employees was very much greater.

Small wonder that Hammond Lumber Company has been a leader and staunch supporter of fire prevention efforts in the Redwood region, where most of our timber holdings are.

The Redwood Region Conservation Council has a program of educating the public to the fact that they have a vital stake in fire prevention, tree farming and private enterprise.

The Council is formed of business and professional men in the Redwood region. They want to help make the lumber industry a permanent and perpetual payroll asset in the economy of their area. Their slogan is "Keep the Redwood Region Green!"

The RRCC looks to the co-operation of every American citizen; and fortunately, a fire-conscious public is now beginning to develop. More power to the movement!

What They Were Doing Over Thanksgiving Day

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Barkman entertained a group of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hepp and son, William, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Ernest, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Vreenegeor, at their Michillinda home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Williams of N. Mountain Trail had a real family reunion for their Thanksgiving celebration. Their children, Mr. and Mrs. Floy E. Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams and family were on hand for the turkey. Two of Mr. Williams' brothers, Mr. L. G. Williams of Beaumont, and Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Williams and their two children, Gail and Michael, from Stockton, joined the group as did a cousin, Mrs. Eva Littell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. List, 31 E. Orange Grove, spent the feast day with Mrs. List's mother, Mrs. Solon Foster, at the Foster ranch near Indio. The List children, Dickie, Randy, Bobbie and Carolyn, joined in the festivities as did Mrs. List's mother, Mrs. Clara Bruce Lacy, and another aunt, Mrs. A. Lee Smiser, from Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner Harkness had a family dinner at their W. Montecito home yesterday. Those attending were Mr. Harkness' mother, Mrs. E. L. Harkness, Mrs. Harkness' mother, Mrs. T. F. Yerxa, a son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Miner Y. Harkness and small Richard, a daughter, Mrs. James McRoberts, and her two sons, Jimmy and Jock.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Underwood of 770 Canyon Crest drive and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Baker of Alhambra, had their Thanksgiving dinner on the banks of the Colorado River at Willow Beach, Nev. The quartette left last Wednesday on a four-day fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Adams of W. Highland left last Wednesday for San Diego, to spend the holidays with their daughter and son-in-law, Commander and Mrs. W. M. Brown.

Dr. and Mrs. George W. Groth Jr. had dinner at their N. Baldwin home for Mrs. Groth's grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Ferguson, their children, Christine and George, and some close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Schwartz have left their W. Highland home to spend Thanksgiving with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Schwartz, and their new grandson, in San Rafael. Mr. Schwartz will be returning this weekend, but Mrs. Schwartz will stay for another week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Matthews of 186 Grove were the guests of Mrs. Matthews' cousin, Mr. Russel Cushing, for their family's holiday celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Franklin MacNeill entertained their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Franklin MacNeill Jr. from Baldwin Park, and their two children, Linda and Larry, at their Sycamore place home yesterday.

The William R. Lees' home at 74 E. Sierra Madre was the scene of a family party yesterday. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Lees, and their two children, Dennis and Richard, drove in from Long Beach for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Linville of 595 Alta Vista drive joined their family for a double celebration, yesterday. Not only was it Thanksgiving, but the Linvilles marked their 48th wedding anniversary. The party was held at the home of the Linville's oldest daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William L. McIntyre, in Covina. A son, Charles B. Linville and his family, attended the affair as did another daughter, Mrs. Mary Simpson and her son. Mrs. Linville's sister, Mrs. G. C. Hewitt and her son, Guy C. Hewitt, and his family were also in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Marsh of 656 W. Sierra Madre spent yesterday at a family dinner in Pasadena. Mr. Marsh's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Oates, had the party at their home. Mr. and Mrs. John Marsh, Mr. Marsh's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Renshaw, Mrs. Marsh's parents, were members of the happy group.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Lyon of 497 W. Grandview and their children, Penny, Cy and Sut, spent yesterday with Mrs. Lyon's family, Mr. and Mrs. William Stringfellow of Sierra Madre. Close friends from Beverly Hills shared the day with them.

A family group met at the W. Alegria home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ferguson for yesterday's dinner. Mrs. Ferguson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Dodge of 111 E. Orange Grove and Mrs. Dodge's mother, Mrs. V. Wenlock of Long Beach, were among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Clark went to the home of a niece, Mrs. Evelyn Clark, in Lakewood, and shared in the festivities with the Clark family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan W. Born joined Mrs. Born's family, in Inglewood, at the home of a sister, Mrs. Herman Wulff, for their holiday dinner. Mrs. Born's father, Milton P. Holman, was on hand to greet the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Rutledge of 676 Ramona shared the day's good time with their sons, John and Jim.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy H. Quackenboss entertained their families at their W. Grandview home. Those sharing in the good time were Mr. Quackenboss' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Quackenboss, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rutledge, Mrs. Quackenboss' parents, and Mrs. Lynette Briggs and her daughter, Joan.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Rogers and their daughter, Nancy, had their own family celebration at their home on Suffolk.

Col. and Mrs. Walter D. Thurber of 470 Manzanita had their family get-together last Sunday. Their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Thurber, came down from Bakersfield with their family. Another son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Thurber, brought their family over from Eagle Rock. The daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Zebal of Sierra Madre and their family were in attendance too.

ALTHOUGH THE FATHERS ARE NOT OFFICIALLY on the committee for the Community Nursery School Christmas dance, they're the ones (so they say) who usually end by doing most of the work. Whatever the case, they were in the picture that was taken at the home of the Charles Roths. From left to right: Lewis Lampi, Mrs. Lampi, Mrs. Charles Roth, anonymous snowman, Charles Roth, Mrs. William Beckwith, and William Beckwith. They met to make arrangements for what is always considered the Nursery School's gayest party of the year, where Mom and Dad really dress for the occasion although formal dress is not required, at the Woman's Clubhouse, Dec. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurbert L. Parton of 270 N. Mountain Trail and their family joined Mr. Parton's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Parton, at their Arcadia home, for their Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ower of 22 W. Carter had a gathering of the Ower boys and their wives. Those joining the group were Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Ower, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ower, Mr. and Mrs. John Ower, parents of the boys, spent the day at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bell of Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall Perry of 118 E. Laurel entertained their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mulleaby, at dinner yesterday.

For the first time in three years, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Newton of S. Baldwin had all three girls home for Thanksgiving dinner. Mrs. John Bustard (Martha) from Honolulu, and her 5-month-old son, John Newton, has been visiting her parents for the past six weeks and will not return to the Islands until after Thanksgiving. Another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walance and their two children, Ann and Bruce, made the trip over from their home in Palos Verdes, and of course the third daughter and popular Sierra Madre School vice-principal, Betty, was on hand to join in the reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Owen entertained Mrs. Owen's sister-in-law, Mrs. Lillie Martin, of Reseda and a close friend, Mrs. David Dart, at dinner yesterday. The festivities had to be on the quiet side since Mr. Owen has not been well but the members of the party enjoyed the day.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Goodall of 275 Churchill road and their two sons, Ricky and Tommy, entertained Mr. Goodall's mother, Mrs. Mary Goodall of Los Angeles, with a family dinner yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Deane L. Damon of 83 Cypress court, took part in a very large family reunion yesterday. The guests of honor were an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Richardson and a cousin and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Perkins. The four honorees drove out from Maine and are planning on staying until after New Year's. The reunion was held at the Knights of Pythias Lodge Hall in Pasadena. An old style New England Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed by 65 members of the family. The

Christmas Fair On Agenda of Trinity Presbyterian Church

Plans for the Trinity Presbyterian Church Christmas Fair are rapidly nearing completion. The affair, sponsored by the Church Guild, will take place Wednesday, Dec. 3, from 1 p.m. through the evening.

Mrs. Gertrude Embree, president of Trinity Guild, and Mrs. Emma H. Wright, chairman of the bazaar, will be assisted by the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Jean Wooley and Mrs. Prinder, novelties; Mrs. C. A. Root, aprons; Mrs. A. C. Wilfong and Mrs. E. Beard, baked and cooked foods.

Mrs. Simpson, centerpieces, corsages, and Christmas decorations. Mrs. Amelia Barnard and Miss Mabel E. Schadt, parcel post; Mrs. Skow and Mrs. Glenn Taylor, candy, canned fruits and jelly; Mrs. J. G. Stefens and Mrs. J. H. Cummins, toys and toys for girls and boys.

Mrs. C. E. Lewis, white elephants; Mrs. Cowen and Mrs. Jenkins, fish pond and games for children; Mrs. Horace Ray and Mrs. Emma H. Wright, cards and wrappings.

Tea will be served from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Mrs. George Slater and Mrs. Lewis Hyde will be in charge of the Tea Room.

Young mothers may plan to come to the fair and enjoy themselves since Mrs. A. Davis Klett is in charge of a nursery that will care for the small ones while their mothers have a good time.

There will be movies for children in the afternoon and evening. The Clipper Club will serve dinner from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

hosts and hostesses for the party were Mrs. Damon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Kelsey, two aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chase and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Ellis, and Mrs. Bert Fletcher of Sierra Madre.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Cox entertained Mrs. Cox's sister, Miss Alice Attitude of Riverside, at a family dinner yesterday at their Vista Circle drive home.

Mrs. Alice I. Clark of Lowell street had a family dinner for her son, Robert Clark, and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wark of 177 Merrill. Mrs. Clark's two grandchildren, Carol Ann and Stevie, were on hand to enjoy the fun too.

Mrs. Ward Back From Year In Michigan

Mrs. Ione E. Ward, former owner and publisher of the Sierra Madre News, has returned to Sierra Madre after spending the past year with her sister, Mrs. R. M. Kempton of Saginaw, Michigan. She will make her home at 105 S. Hermosa.

Mrs. Kempton accompanied Mrs. Ward to St. Louis, Missouri, where they visited with relatives; Mrs. Ward motored alone from St. Louis, arriving in Sierra Madre last Thursday. "It was three above zero in Flagstaff, and the whole landscape was covered with snow," Mrs. Ward exclaimed, and added "I certainly felt 'out from under'—thrilled—to see the first California signs: the palms, the desert cacti, and especially the orange trees."

Hi Y Meet Ends In Rough Trip

Kenneth Rhodes and Tony Pascoe of Sierra Madre were among the 45 boys of the Pasadena area who attended the Hi-Y Conference at Catalina last weekend.

They had quite a return boat trip Sunday. A 40-mile gale ruffled up the channel and 41 of the fellows succumbed to the usual accompanying discomfort. It was not disclosed whether Pascoe and Rhodes were of that group, or the unaffected minority group of four.

REUNION FOR SEVERNS, SAN GABRIEL RECTOR

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Severns of 90 S. Hermosa avenue will have the pleasure of renewing an old friendship in the very near future.

Dr. Crawford Brown of Pittsburgh has been chosen to be the rector of the Church of Our Saviour, Episcopal Church in San Gabriel. The Severns and the Browns were very close friends, in Illinois, but have not seen each other for the past 19 years.

Prior to going to Pittsburgh, Dr. Brown had been Dean of the Cathedral at Washington, D.C.

Col. and Mrs. Gildart Plan Puerto Rico Trip

Col. and Mrs. Charles R. Gildart of 513 Elm are planning an extensive vacation.

They expect to sail from New Orleans Dec. 17 for Puerto Rico to join in a family reunion and to be on hand for the christening of their first grandchild, George Draper Lewis, IV.

Small George is the son of the Gildart's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Draper Lewis, III, who are making their home in Puerto Rico.

It is hoped by the family that Lt. Charles R. Gildart, Jr.,

Tom Tyler Returns To Sierra Madre

Friends and neighbors of Tom Tyler, former businessman of Sierra Madre, will be happy to know that Tom is back in town, after better than a three-year stay in Salome, Arizona. He is staying at the Sierra Madre Hotel and plans on making his home here permanently.

who is attached to the Airborne Artillery, will be able to spend his leave with his family, in Puerto Rico.

The Gildarts expect to be gone for at least two months.

FIRST SEMESTER—WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY ABOUT

Dec. 4: THE BIBLE—Is it a reliable source of religion for you?

Dec. 11: GOD—Can you really know God?

Dec. 18: THE ORIGIN OF THE UNIVERSE—Did God create you, or are you an evolutionary product?

Jan. 8: EVIL—Is this human tendency inherited or acquired?

Jan. 15: JESUS CHRIST—Your God, or only a great man?

Jan. 22: JESUS CHRIST—Your Savior, or an impostor?

Jan. 29: FAITH—How can you obtain it?

Feb. 5: PEACE OF MIND—Can you really have it?

This Adult Night School of Religion is designed to be of informational value especially for parents and adults who are not active members of any church. Your attendance will impose no fees or obligations. In these study-discussion periods you will see how Christianity can enrich your life.

Nolie Suman Elected By Wellesley Class

Miss Nolie Suman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alwin L. Suman of 322 Sturtevant drive, has recently been elected to serve as freshman class representative in her Wellesley College dormitory, Stone Hall.

A newcomer to Wellesley this year, Miss Suman is a graduate of the Anokaia School, Arcadia.

MEETING YOUR NEIGHBORS IN

Hastings Ranch

KAY GATES, Custer 5-2183

Although for a few hours, a week ago Friday and Saturday, it looked as if we might have to take to canoes, we have come out of those downpours with flying colors. J. E. Had-dock Co. had a stiff battle in our last year's "Grand Canyon" area in the southern section of our ranch, but thanks to their speedy action, matters there were rapidly brought under control though we understand it did delay a little our connection with Rosemead boulevard. Too bad Old Man Weather didn't wait until the surfacing was on down there.

Now for the lighter side of the news, we are happy to hear that our old friends on Mayfair drive, the C. Harris Flannery family, are close neighbors again. After eight months in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, they have returned to California and are renting a home in Upper Hastings Ranch, that of the Marvin McClains at 1105 Medford road. Mr. McClain who, like Mr. Flannery, is an employee of C. F. Braun Co. in Alhambra, was transferred to Australia about the time the Flannerys came west which was very convenient for both families.

Some time in the near future Mr. and Mrs. Flannery expect to move back to their home on Mayfair drive, but meanwhile they are enjoying being so close to their old friends and neighbors as is their son, Jeffrey, who has returned to his pals in Field School. "It is certainly wonderful being back in California," Mrs. Flannery says.

News of another family who were our neighbors on Mayfair drive—the Robert Lawrence, moved from our ranch last January and are now settled in their beautiful new home in Northridge, in San Fernando Valley. Several of Mrs. Lawrence's ranch friends recently enjoyed a luncheon in the new home—Mmes. William Holmes, Frank Murphy, John Murphy, Ed Murphy and J. E. Rosenfield.

phy, seven-year-old daughter of the Ed Murphy's, for 11 of her second grade classmates at Polytechnic School in Pasadena. Luncheon was followed by games and a piano recital by Kay and several of her guests. The big day for Kay ended with a family dinner party in the evening for 22 relatives.

A Brownie troop of Field School recently enjoyed a gay slumber party at the home of their leader, Mrs. Warren Silliman, on Landfair road. Her co-leader, Mrs. Russell Vaniman, assisted with the party for 18 members. Prior to the event, the girls chose committees to plan the affair—deciding the hour for "bedding down," refreshments, and entertainment. Under the leadership of Mr. Silliman, who is a choral director, the girls sang songs around the fireplace while they toasted marshmallows. There was the usual raid on the ice box, too. At 6 a.m. Saturday, the girls were up and rarin' to go, and, after a sizable breakfast of pancakes, eggs, etc., which they prepared themselves, they went for a hike in Upper Hastings Ranch. Those from the ranch who took part in the big time together were: Helen E. Holmes, Janet Lindman, Joan Zeman, Carolyn Dunn, Heidi Silliman and Deana Vaniman.

Finally, we have news of a teen-ager party at the Glynn's home on Greenhill road when their son, Jimmie, entertained 25 of his pals of Wilson Jr. High—a group from his English and Social studies room. Their teacher, Mr. Burns, attended the party with his students, though the young people had the full responsibility of planning the dance, games and decorations. The boys wore Hawaiian shirts and the girls, Hawaiian leis, which they had made. Decorations were of the blue and gold school colors.

The Bruce W. Minters of Mayfair drive have a new arrival in their home, son William Bruce II, born Nov. 11, at St. Luke Hospital. The husky lad, who weighed 8 pounds, 3 ounces at birth, should be able to hold his own with his brothers, Dan and John.

Santa Claus Parades With Stars Tonight

Although the grand opening night of the Santa Claus Lane parade in Hollywood has been cancelled, the month-long pre-Christmas appearances of St. Nick and his big snow-making float loaded with stars will be held.

Starting tonight Santa will make his first appearance simultaneously with lighting of the 100-odd Christmas trees and the bells and wreaths that decorate Hollywood boulevard.

Santa's guest opening night will be the king of the cowboys, Roy Rogers, his lovely wife, Dale Evans, and the Rogers children which includes daughters, Cheryl, Linda and Little Doe, and sons, Sandy and Dusty.

The Lane will be lighted at 7 p.m. and a half-hour later Santa and his sleigh will leave Argyle and Hollywood boulevard and proceed west down Santa Claus Lane to La Brea avenue. This parade will be repeated every night, with the exception of Sundays or inclement weather, through Dec. 23, with different stars accompanying Santa each night.

EVERY FLOAT A MELODY—Theme of Pasadena's 64th annual Tournament of Roses parade New Year's day is "Melodies in Flowers" giving communities and organizations building the 60 floral masterpieces, an opportunity to portray their favorite songs in flower pictures. Hearing the announcement of the theme are Sharon Doty and Marion Honsaker, students from Pasadena City and John Muir Colleges. In addition to the floats there will be 20 bands and 200 fine horses in the parade for the pleasure of Pasadena visitors.

'Yellow Jacket' In Third Week At Playhouse

"The Yellow Jacket," famous Benrimo-Hazeltine Chinese creation, moves into a third and added week at Pasadena Playhouse, with final curtain reset to Sunday, Nov. 30. Staged in authentic Chinese manner, back-grounded by a colorful setting and Oriental costumes, "The Yellow Jacket" has been praised by press and playgoers as it celebrates the 40th anniversary of its original New York production. Harpo Marx, playing the role of The Property Man, was forced to leave the Playhouse company after Nov. 24 because of television contracts. Bobker ben All, doubling in a lead role and as director, John Call, Tom Royal, Toni Gerry, Betty Flint, Henry Dunn and William Dalzell head the cast of 40 in the Pasadena presentation. Opening of "Stalag 17" at the Playhouse has been postponed to Dec. 4 to allow for "The Yellow Jacket" holdover.

MEDINA EXHIBIT AT HUNTINGTON WILL END DEC. 1

Three more days remain for Sierra Madre book lovers to see the exhibit at Huntington Library honoring Jose Toribio Medina, the great Chilean historian and bibliographer, on the 100th anniversary of his birth. In showing part of his extensive collection of Medina's works, the Huntington joins in a celebration extending over two continents, sponsored by 24 national organizations, in the United States, as well as by the Pan American Institute of Geography and History in Mexico City. Others joining in are the Library of Congress and the American Library Association.

Medina has been called the greatest Americanist of all times. His own Biblioteca Americana, left by him to the Chilean Nation, is regarded as the finest source for research on the colonial civilization of Latin America that exists.

The Huntington Library's Medina collection includes practically all of his bibliographical works. Among the items exhibited are the "Historia de la Literatura Colonial de Chile" published in Santiago in 1878, on which he made his fame, and his "Discovery of the Amazon," the only one of his works to have been translated into English.

The exhibit will remain on view until Dec. 1.

SPEAKER AT BETHANY

Dr. Clarence W. Jones, one of the co-founders of radio station HCB, "The Voice of the Andes" in South America, will be a featured guest at the meeting of the Bethany Missionary Society, Tuesday, Dec. 2.

Half Century Of Marriage Observed

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hahn of 347 Grove street, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, Nov. 16, with a reception for 85 people at the Sierra Madre Woman's Clubhouse.

Their son, C. Jacques Hahn, well known landscape architect, planned and executed the floral decorations from flowers he had grown in his garden. Chrysanthemums, orchids, and magnolias were used in the arrangements. The large tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses and the candles used on the tea table were used in the wedding decorations when Mr. and Mrs. Hahn were married in Easton, Illinois, 50 years ago.

Among the guests were Mrs. Ida Mowder of Huntington Beach and Mrs. Sammie Tucker, a neighbor on Grove street. Both ladies are friends of long standing from Illinois.

Tuesday, Nov. 18, was the actual day of the anniversary and a dinner was given at Eaton's Santa Anita Restaurant for the family and some friends. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hahn, Mr. C. Jacques Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Merten, a daughter and son-in-law from Fontana and their three sons, Stephen John, Robert Dale and Shawnee James; Mr. Bromley W. Clarke, a grandson and the son of the Hahn's oldest daughter, Arletta, who is living in Oak Ridge, Tennessee, and was unable to share in the festivities; Mr. Charles Hoffman and Mr. Robert Harkey.

and that a suitable sump be constructed to the west end of the proposed new section of Fairview to provide drainage from that section.

Other business included the granting of a lot split to Mrs. Rose E. Mead, 480 N. Baldwin; a rear yard variance to Albert C. Knutsen in Santa Anita Highlands; and a side yard variance to Mrs. Gladys Jackson to enable her to build a garage.

Blanche and Thomas P. Buie appeared before the board to ask advice about the property of the old hotel on Lima street. The Planning Commission recommended that either the property be split into four lots for houses, or that they apply for a zone change to allow for multiple dwelling.

The Buies will apply for a spot zone, a matter to be presented to the commission at its next meeting, Dec. 18.

Chartered Club Arranged By Democrats

Sierra Madre Democrats held their first post election meeting at 258 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. last Thursday night. In so doing, they organized the first chartered Democratic Club in Sierra Madre, the late Stevenson-Sparkman Club having disbanded and not having been a chartered club.

The purpose of the club, according to Lee Shippey, is to keep watch on what California Congressmen and Senators do in Congress and inform them of what the club thinks they should do; to study political questions objectively and to support the next president in all matters in which the club thinks he is taking a progressive and admirable position.

Borrowing an idea from Sierra Madre's remarkable Parent-Teacher Association, the club decided to make its officers husbands and wives in most cases. Mr. and Mrs. James L. Malone were elected chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lathe, treasurers; David Arenson, program chairman; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nash, imprimators; Mr. and Mrs. Julian LaLone, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Evelyn C. Sloman, secretary; Mrs. Alfred Dewey, keeper of records; Mrs. Lee Shippey, publicity. The duties of the timekeeper will be to call time on any arguer who exceeds five minutes.

The club will meet the third Monday of each month in Alfred Dewey's studio, 28 Windsor Lane, and all interested persons, regardless of party, are invited to be present. The first meeting will be Dec. 15.

Storkland

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Schwartz of 246 W. Highland are grandparents. Their first grandchild, Thomas Preston Schwartz, was born last Nov. 16, in San Rafael. Young Thomas' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Schwartz. The new member of the Schwartz family was named after his paternal great-grandfather, Thomas Preston.

Old Friends Return To Wistaria Bakery

The "new" management at the Wistaria Bake Shop, 4 East Sierra Madre boulevard, is not exactly new. The co-partners there are Hugo Ebmeier and Dave Sample, the latter of whom has been at the bake shop before. Many residents remember Sample when he worked with Stanley Decker there from 1936 to 1943.

Sample, who is a native of Rockford, Ill., has been a baker in California since 1922. Ebmeier also is a man of long experience in the business and still operates the Swiss French Bakery in Montrose.

Sample's wife, Mary, helps keep the bake shop open from 8 a.m. until 6:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Marriage of Barbara Morrison December 6

Invitations have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson E. Morrison of South Pasadena for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Barbara Evelyn Morrison, to Mr. James Worth Watson.

The marriage ceremony will be solemnized by Father Harley Gibbs Smith, Jr., at the Church of the Ascension, Saturday, Dec. 6.

The Morrises are former residents of Sierra Madre. Mr. Watson is the son of Mrs. Kenneth Hunter of Pasadena.

"GOODS OF THE WOODS"

WHAT AUTOMATIC MEANS

When your gas range is fully automatic, you get all these modern features:

- Top burners light without matches — broiler lights automatically, too, at turn of the control
- automatic heat control keeps oven constantly at temperature you set — does your own watching for you
- oven lights automatically as you set the temperature control
- clock control turns on and off at times you set
- timer reminds you when food has cooked time specified in recipe.

Remember, a modern automatic gas range is fully automatic!

Gas obeys you instantly

NO LINGERING HEAT—NO BOIL-OVERS!

THERE'S no trick to deep-fat frying when you cook with gas and a new automatic gas range.

The visible blue gas flame lets you see just how much heat you're using. When your thermometer rises, you can reduce the heat instantly... accurately. When you need more heat, you have it at once. No waiting ever! And when you shut gas off... it's really off! No captive heat lingers in your burner to over-cook foods or cause messy boil-overs. With gas, you're always in complete command. No other practical fuel is so responsive to your cooking needs.

For cooking at its easiest and best, install a new automatic gas range. See the gleaming displays at dealers or your Gas Company.

You'll be pleased to learn that new automatic gas ranges cost less to buy... less to operate. Choose yours today!
